“ Dear Rose, Mary, Ellen, Burt, John, Alison, Laura, the grandchildren and the entire extended " Herzog" family,

My sincere condolences and prayers of comfort are sent to all of you as goodbyes & "until you meet again" are said to your universally loved and cherished Father.

Although He has left this earth, He is now able to join his greatest love, your Mother, 'Betty" and his cherished son, Tom.

It was obvious to those of us who were acquainted and spent time with your father that his love and priorities in life were his children and their welfare. He possessed a strong code of ethics, built a solid foundation for his family and shared valuable wisdom. His admirable legacy lives on through all of you, his family & the entire extended family.

I am very Thankful for all the conversations and fond memories of your father, particularly at the Herzog cottage and during the "Clam Bakes". He generously welcomed friends of his children to partake in a piece of his paradise in Onekama, treating us just like adopted kids.

His memory and legacy will live on through all of you.

*Love,
Deborah*

“ Sending much love to Ellen and the entire Herzog family. Whenever I hear someone utter "yeah," rather than "yes," I think of your father with a smile. Oh, the patience he had with my typing when he was kind enough to temporarily employ me as I was seeking a permanent job in my early 20's! :) ...He was a special man indeed.

“ I have known Bert for 40 years and will miss his physical presence in our family. I know, however, that he will always be with us in spirit. It is not always easy for the son in law of the first daughter to find common ground with the Dad. But, we did it through mutual respect and our common interest in caring for Alison and the grandchildren. I gained his trust and he always had mine as he was among the most honest and fairest father's I have had the priviledge to know.

We will miss him but he had a long and fulfilling life and a wonderful family filled with children and grandchildren. There was some tragedy but mostly good fortunes that can be celebrated with our memories. We should all be so lucky.

“ Dear Bert, Our deepest sympathy to you and your entire family. Your Dad characterized what has come to be known as The Greatest Generation, an example of the best sort of person to be. Your beautifully written remembrance of your Dad is heart warming. We can only hope that the spirit of that generation continues to influence our world in some way. There is one key statement that you made about him: Like many in his generation, he never talked about his accomplishments or his problems. A man like your Dad just lived life, did what he was supposed to do every day, and set the example that we should all follow. We never met your Dad, but we thank God for him, because we know that his life on earth has made the world a better place. We have met you and your family and are grateful for you in our lives.
