“ Uncle Andrew was a wonderful and kind man. He was married to my dad's sister Donna who also was wonderful and kind I love them both. I remember when I was little they would come out to our house and how excited I would get to see them. Uncle Andrew would still come and see me every now and then to see me and my kids. We were all way happy to see him. I also would call him on his birthday the day after Christmas. We will miss him. But now he is in heaven with my mom and dad and his loving wife. We love you uncle Andrew
