“ Grandpa D was a strong gentle man and there are so many fond memories of coming for Christmas every year and all the summers I came to visit. Grandpa D was the perfect example of hard work and dedication. When Grandpa dedicated himself to something, it was 100% and it was for life. This applied to everything from family to friends to his church and his work. I'm not here to say goodbye to you, I'm here to celebrate who you were and all the wonderful things you have done in life; please know that we all love you so very much.
