“ Hello to my favorite family when I was growing up on Grosse Isle, MI. I am so sorry for the loss of a husband and for the loss of a great Dad. I have the fondest memories of our vacations in Florida, Bigwin Inn, and all the get togethers we had over the years. One of my fondest memories is when you all moved to a beautiful area in MI (can't remember the name of city) but we Latta's came over for dinner and Cindy and Teri took me out when it was dark and we rode snow mobiles under the moonlight and came back to hot chocolate at your house. Our parents were the best of friends, and all I can remember are the happiest of times when we were together.

My brother said it right when he called me to tell me of Mr. Burt's passing: he said, I bet your dad, my dad, and Mr. Bushroe are holding a staff meeting up in heaven. I can just picture it.

Love to all,

Lindy Latta-Roberts
