“ Dear Corky and Dick,
We all loved your Mom, our Aunt Dolly very much. She always remembered us with a card on birthdays and holidays, thereby helping to keep our far-flung family together. I always enjoyed her intelligent and candid ideas. She was a real gem and will be missed very much.
Love, Cousin Donna

“ Dear Corky & family,
We are so saddened to learn of your mothers passing. She was such a loving and caring lady. As you know, I worked several years with her at U.S. Truck. I have very fond memories of her and your dad. We also had tons of fun when we went on a couple trips to Las Vegas. Your mom loved the slots and keno. I last spoke with her a couple weeks ago and she sounded wonderful. She thanked us for the church papers and greeting cards. I will miss her voice dearly. I also play the polka albums that she gave me that your dad so loved. May she rest in God's ever loving peace along with your dad.

Sincerely,
