“ Dear Leslie, Susan, and Carol,

It doesn't feel the same. When I drive to the family lake house in Interlochen, I do not see your mom and dad. If I was doing a solo trip, I'd call ahead to let them know I'd "be about" the house. And, of course, I'd walk over and check in when I saw the front door open, or Jack fixing or tidying something on the property. If I was lucky, your mom would invite me in for dessert. They enjoyed the best desserts. I know they kept a watchful eye for my mom, Marge, as well as all of us. They were wonderful neighbors and friends. Good people. I miss them. I know you do, too - very deeply in your hearts.

Carol, I never met you, but Jackie often spoke fondly of you. Leslie and Susan, I'm so pleased to have met you and had an opportunity to spend some time with you. I extend my deepest condolences to the three of you. I have not forgotten you or Jack and Jackie. I know they rest in peace. And I'm certain many neighbors miss waving to them as they drove by or stopped to chat while on a walk.

With Deep Sympathy,
Elizabeth Colburn

“ Dear Laing Family and Friends,

I wasn't privileged with the remarkable acquaintance of Mrs. Laing as you were, but it saddens me to read of your tremendous loss. Please accept my family's sincerest condolences. It brings great comfort and hope to many to know that The Almighty God and Creator promises to rid humans of death, pain, sorrow, and outcry, very soon, in his Word The Bible . May you all have peace.
