

James "Jim" J. Steed

April 10, 1956 - August 4, 2019

James J. Steed, 63, of Buckley, Michigan died unexpectedly at his home on August 3, 2019 after a lifelong struggle with kidney disease and related complications.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James and Agnes Steed and is survived by his four siblings; Sandra, Mary, Jess, and Roger.

Despite his bouts of illness, he saw his life as a positive experience and was comforted by his religious faith and his deep communion with nature.

It was his wish that there be no public service in his memory and that his ashes be scattered on the farm which was his lifelong home.

“ I first met Jim in the late 1970s. We had a mutual interest in hunting and usually that was what we talked about when we got together. I never met anyone with a higher level of enthusiasm, especially when it came to hunting. I think Jim would rather hunt than eat. He always got so excited as summer waned and the cool days and nights of autumn came on. It was time to get ready, get himself ready, get his gear ready, and his beloved dogs. I think having hunting to look forward to kept him alive, pulling him onward, when someone else might have given up. Certainly that hope was a powerful force in his life. I'm sorry Jim is gone but I'm happy he's not hurting anymore. I'll miss him but I know he's happy with the Father in heaven.

“ I loved Jim the first moment I met him in September 1969, when he came up and gave me a hug and introduced himself. He was always a good friend to Rick and I and so many others. Had a huge heart, a great personality, a sense of humor and was a hard worker. Rick and Jim were hunting buddies for many years and Rick will miss him terribly, as will the rest of us. Enjoy your new found freedom from pain and sickness up there Jim. Gone from earth, but never forgotten
