

Jeremy Thomas

February 12, 1974 - November 28, 2020

Jeremy Adam Thomas of Traverse City, MI peacefully passed away in his home on Nov. 28th, 2020. He was surrounded by the eternal love and compassion of his closest family during his last moments. Jeremy was born Feb. 12, 1974.

Jeremy spent his early childhood between Michigan and California before his family settled in Traverse City in his early teenage years. He attended Traverse City St. Francis High school and graduated with the class of 1992.

He loved reading, writing, music, hiking and camping. Above all he loved being the proud father to his son Owen, the biggest blessing of his entire life.

He was very passionate about his career spanning several years as a chef, working in restaurants in his home state of Michigan, as well as Texas and Florida, where he also resided at different times in his life. His ability to express himself through his craft in the culinary arts brought him immense joy and pride.

Jeremy was a kind, thoughtful and caring man, who always thought of others first. His generosity and deep compassion for others were a testament to the depth of his character and size of his heart. Anyone who knew Jeremy personally could attest to his extreme kindness as well as his deep intelligence, wittiness and sharp humor. To know him well enough to call him a friend was to know he would do anything for you without hesitation or reward. To his closest friends he was not only a kindred spirit and brother, but also a teacher and mentor who always had the time and patience to help with anything you asked of him.

He left a lasting impression on everyone he knew and his impact will never be forgotten by family and friends alike. The void he leaves behind is simply immeasurable and he will be forever missed, but always remembered with fondness and love.

He was preceded in death by his Father Thomas P. Thomas; grandparents Joseph and Myrtle Sweet and Oscar and Elaine Thomas; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

He is survived by his beloved son Owen Thomas; mother Dawn Thomas; sister Jessica Crowe; nephew Cannon Crowe and several aunts, uncles and dear friends.

"Rest with me

My lovely brother

For you see

There is no other

Memory so sad and sweet

I'll see you soon

Save me a seat

Well I'm cryin'

Now my lovely man

Yes I'm cryin'

Now and no one can

Ever fill the hole you left my man

I'll see you later

My lovely man if I can"

“ I met Jeremy through a great friend in Matt Novesky. Jeremy lived across the street from Matt and we clicked immediately. Late night sleepovers, euchre with Dawn and Tom, video games for hours on end, Jeremy was always so fun to be around. As we grew up and older, we still remained close. As time would have it, people go in their separate ways, but let me tell you, any time we ran into each other, it was on! Hours of belly ache laughter, and stories of old. Jeremy old friend, you are so dearly missed, may you rest easy and know that I cherish our friendship. And always will. Thanks for always being you. Love you brother.

“ Dawn, I am so very sorry for you! Jeremy was such a special person who made us all laugh. It would be years since we would connect, but we always picked up where we left off. He will be missed dearly!

until we meet again
we think about you always we talk about you still you have never been forgotten and you never will we hold you close within our hearts and there you will remain to walk and guide us through our lives
until we meet again

RIP my friend!

“ I will miss the biggest heart I've ever known. I will miss our long philosophical discussions, which always left me enlightened. I will miss your sense of humor, matched by no other. I will miss your unworldly wisdom and knowledge, which always left me in awe. But mostly I will miss your great big heart. I loved you more than mere words can say. Heaven's gain is this world's loss. Tell me, how can the world keep turning?
