

Joan Arlene Webber

December 18, 1935 - February 8, 2020

Joan Webber, 84, of Williamsburg (formerly Honor) passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 8, 2020 surrounded by loving family.

Joan was born in Detroit, MI on December 18, 1935. She lived in Dearborn, MI with her family until 1955. She had one brother, Terrence Ryan.

She attended Dearborn schools and after graduation enrolled at Western Michigan University (WMU) where she met Jim Webber. Jim and Joan were united in marriage and celebrated their two sons Bradley and Alan. Their families provided four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Jim and Joan both graduated from WMU and they traveled through Europe while Jim was in the U.S. Army. Joan taught two years of kindergarten in Germany and another two years in Kalamazoo. Joan and Jim built their homes in Kalamazoo and on the Platte River in Honor, MI.

Her hobbies included bird watching, crafts, hiking, nature, and reading. Joan particularly enjoyed the poet Alfred Tennyson and his work "Crossing the Bar" and the song "There's a New World Coming" by Mama Cass.

Joan is forever loved by her loving husband of 64 years, Jim; children Bradley and Alan; 4 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Cremation has taken place and a Celebration of Joan's life will take place at a time and place to be determined. Details to appear at a later time.

Visit www.reynolds-jonkhoff.com to view Joan's tribute page to share memories or condolences.

Comments

“ I got to know Joan at Samaritas, as she was a table mate of my Mom’s in the dining room. I would often come to visit and sit with Joan, Margaret and my Mom, Martha, and enjoyed many conversations with the three of them. I am so very sorry for your loss...

Gretchen Bergen - February 17 at 09:47 AM

“ Jim, Brad, and Al, you are in my thoughts and prayers. I was so sad to read this post. Your Mom always made me feel welcome and accepted and her smile was contagious. Brad, you are so right...Heaven gained a beautiful angel.

Shelly Groetsema-Dusek - February 14 at 08:47 AM

“ Mom/Joanie
I miss you terribly, the pain of losing a parent is awful. You were always the one to offer encouragement and tell me how much I was loved. You also were one of a very few people who got my warped sense of humor. I'll miss calling to ask about a bird I saw, a flower blakley picked, or hearing the yeti voice. You were the best mom you could be. I understood your pain and know for a fact your in a place where that pain is gone. God gained an angel, I will see you again, RIP mom I love you-
BFW

Brad webber - February 13 at 10:09 PM

“ Joan,
You were the best wife ever.
Love, Jim

James Webber - February 13 at 08:28 PM

“ My sweet mother,
Thank you for your unconditional love and always making me feel special. You taught me to appreciate the simple things in life.....like nature, a sunset, birds singing, good conversation and Truth! I will hold in my heart the wonderful times and memories we shared as a family. I miss you terribly but am comforted that you are with god and not in pain anymore. I love you to the moon
Your proud son, Alan James

Al Webber - February 12 at 08:24 PM

“ rip my friend was a pleasure taking care of you the times i did. you always smiled and always laughed
you were such a sweet lady fly high my friend

June Limon - February 12 at 08:30 AM