“ I always remember Mrs. Gray as an excellent coworker and fun to joke with when we had the chance to talk privately at work. (W.K. Willis H.S.) She was my librarian. The last time I spoke to Joyce was in the Apple Valley area where I also owned a lot of land. It was purchased so we could use my wife's boat during the summer. Joyce and I had a good laugh when she told me that she didn't know what to do with the name plate I gave her (and my other teachers) to put outside the door leading to the library. I laughed so hard when she said "I hung it above the door leading into the laundry room in Apple Valley. I just heard about her passing today (1-5-2021) thanks to Chuck S. and Gene S. Thanks. God Bless Joyce! She touched the lives of many people and students.
