“ I was so sad to hear about Kathi's passing. She was always so active and busy! What a shock for us all. May she Rest In Peace.

“ Kathie and I became friends when introduced by our friend in common, my former colleague Rowena Zimmerman. We shared good times together at her beautiful home on Lake Leelanau, and in Sutton's Bay, Charlevoix, and Traverse City. Gosh, we had so much fun at Interlochen for The Beach Boys concert; thought we were teens again one beautiful summer's evening in Northern Michigan. We had plans, too, for a holiday celebration at her home and for the future. As her longtime friends know, we now carry Kathie in our hearts as we continue to treasure the memories.

“ I met Kathie & Thelma around 1998 - through Longaberger!!! We became fast friends. They were such wonderful customers & became truly great friends. I called them my Belleville ladies. They were always at my Open Houses, Breast Cancer Events, Bus trips, road trips, Christmas Brunches - I will always remember the wonderful times I have spent with both of them.

Kathie was such a dear friend - always welcoming us to her home ~ we shared many crazy times together shopping, singing, wine tasting, sitting in the sun on Lake Leelanau, swimming, road trips to Dresden, Ohio - Toledo, resale shopping, restaurants - so many restaurants ~ I am very sad & I will miss her so much ~ rest well my friend - love & miss you always !!!!
