

Larry Lee Way

May 17, 1951 - September 6, 2019

On Friday, September 6, 2019, Larry Lee Way, 68, of Traverse City, Michigan, was welcomed home into the arms of his Heavenly Father. He was born on May 17, 1951 at Osteopathic Hospital of Traverse City, Michigan to Clyde and Margot (Gee) Way of Williamsburg, Michigan. He was the sixth out of his siblings. He grew up in Williamsburg, attended school at Elk Rapids, Michigan, graduating in 1969.

On August 27, 2005, he married Toni Marlene Le'Mere in Rapid City, Michigan at the original Way family homestead. He is survived by his wife Toni, son Sean (Nicole) and grandson Hunter, sister Myrna (Way) and John Dykhuis, brothers George (Diana), Maurice "Mo" (Lynda), Marvin and Kenneth, stepson Tom Peebles (Lou Howard), stepdaughter Nicole "Nikki" (Chance) Evans, many nieces and nephews, as well as several step grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother Gordon, nephews Chris and Reece, his former wife Bonnie L. Way, a close friend Richard "Rick" A. Peebles and many friends he made along the way in his journey in life.

Larry was a worker, employed at Hahnenberg Moving and Storage for 15 years then becoming a cross country trucker for 28+ years working for various trucking companies hauling different products including vehicles, cargo trailers, and mail. He also worked for Egler Company in Williamsburg, Michigan. Out of the 50 states, Larry trucked in 46 states (all except Alaska, Hawaii, Washington and Oregon) logging over 6 million miles. His hobbies included hunting, fishing, dancing, reading, swimming, motorcycles, flying, golfing, playing his keyboard, search-a-word puzzles, watching his favorite television shows, but what was most important to his heart was spending quality time with family and friends. His favorite restaurant was Big Boy for the food but especially for the coffee. He also had coffee with his buddies at McDonald's in Kalkaska on Monday mornings. Larry was a very positive and upbeat person, no matter what.

Larry was a Christian who prayed every day. His favorite expressions were, "he/she is a good egg", "where there's a will, there's a way, and my name is Larry Lee Way", and most of all, "God's always got my back". He had a contagious laugh.

A celebration of life will take place at the Reynolds Jonkhoff Funeral Home, 305 Sixth Street, Traverse City, Michigan, on Friday, September 20, 2019. Visitation will be at 10 a.m. with the service at 11 a.m. The Rev. Clifford Batterbee of Mancelona will officiate. A luncheon will follow at 1 p.m. at V.F.W. Cherryland Post 2780 at 3400 Veteran's Drive, Traverse City, Michigan.

Family suggests memorials be directed to your choice of charity.

Burial will be in Memorial Gardens on Veteran's Drive in Traverse City.

“ Enjoy your ride, in the sunshine, fresh air, free, without a single care in the world. You are safe, and that's all that matters to me, my love... feel the gentle waves on whatever body of water you are on, enjoy the sun on your face, enjoy the peace that you most certainly deserve...my hearts hurts, not having you "physically" around, but you will live, forever, in my heart and soul, sweet and gentle man with a huge and generous heart. You changed me and my life for the better, and I will forever be thankful and grateful for that. I know, with time, my heart will hurt a little less, but, it will never truly "heal"...you were way too much a part of me and my life, BB...Rest easy, my love, you are in the Lord's hands and protection, no better place to be. I look forward to the day when we can be reunited, together, again...."t.o.l.f.a.e." your wife toni way :-)

“ hello my love....well, today has been a year, since you went to live with God. I'm trying, but this is not a good day for me....I miss you so much, all the time, and I keep trying my best to move forward, in a positive direction, but, sometimes.... ;-(I'm not as strong, as I think I should be, especially where you are concerned, in this situation...I have forgiven a lot, like I'm supposed to,but.... I will NEVER forget... You were, and always will be one of the greatest "treasures" in my life, my handsome husband and best friend, with a beautiful, huge and humble heart and soul. Remember our "code word" that we made up together for the first time, when I was 14? Nobody has ever been able to figure it out, and I love the fact that it is a combination of you and me. Another wonderful memory that you left me with, my sweet and gentle man. I wish that others had known the "real you", deep, down inside....but, they were "too busy", so altho they did know you, in certain ways, they did NOT know the true and "real" you. They would have been amazed at what they might have discovered....I am truly blessed to have known that about you, as well, as many other things... In 2 weeks, I will have another "first" to go through, without you,and hopefully, after that, life will get a lot easier to deal with. I deeply love and miss you, BB, always have, and always will....You may be gone, "physically", but you will never be "gone" from me, as you had told me, several times..."even death will never separate us from each other, or break our "unbreakable" bond". Rest easy, my beloved guardian angel, I know that you are healthy, happy and safe, and that brings me at least a little....peace. "T.o.l.f.a.e" LLW Your loving wife, Toni Way ;-)

“ You are my sunshine, my only sunshine.... :-) not looking forward to Sunday, but it is what it is, right??? Love looking at your beautiful smile, and remembering how hard you laughed this day at Big Boy restaurant in Traverse City. Lately, have been hearing your deep and hearty laugh, and its helping me to get through, BB... keep visiting me in my dreams,babe..... "t.o.l.f.a.e." your loving and proud to be wife, Toni Way

“ Thinking of you and remembering the house that we used to go by, that was the color of this candle, that we both liked. we used to call it "our periwinkle house". So many beautiful memories you left me with, my love... I wonder, if you ever really knew how amazing and special kind of a human being that you were, and always will be? Rest easy, my love.... I miss you so much, each and every day and night...Your loving wife Toni Way ;-)"t.o.l.f.a.e."

“ Happy Anniversary, my love....I hope that you are looking down from heaven and seeing how badly I miss you, every day and every night... Missing everything about you, but especially your "special" hugs, snuggles and cuddles....I can still hear your precious laugh, from time to time, will never forget your huge and happy smile. I'm glad that you are safe, happy and healthy, I can't ask or hope for you to be back here, with me, cuz you would still be struggling with the health issues that you were. I love you, my special husband and best friend. You asked me, not once, but twice, to be your wife, and God brought us back together, again and allowed our dream to finally come true. I was honored to have you as my husband and to be your wife, I always have been, and I always will be... thank you for teaching me the "real and true meaning of unconditional love", BB... you were, and always will be the greatest gift and blessing that God ever granted me, in my entire life, and I'm so thankful and grateful for that... My life has changed so dramatically, since you went to live, up in heaven, with God, but, at times, I still can feel your "presence", and I continue to see all the "signs" that you are sending me...Death might have separated us "physically", but, our unbreakable bond, will never be broken, my love....I look forward to the day that we can be reunited again, but, of course, that will be up to our Almighty Father. "T.o.l.f.a.e.", my sweet and gentle man... :-) Your loving wife, Toni Way

“ A "special candle" for an amazing human being and very "special man". I have never, in my life, ever experienced being around or with someone quite as humble and at the same time, amazing as you... Your mere presence of walking into a room, would change the atmosphere, better, if things were not positive and even more positive, if they already were. Your laughter would light up "others" faces, and instantly make everyone smile, and have a much better day. I always tried to tell you and make you see what a blessing that you were to others, but especially to me, even though, most of the time you would smile, nervously, blush, stammer, and to some extent...disagree, but after awhile, I think you may have given in a little, and agreed with me... your mom was right, as you told me, you really WERE the "most loving and kind" of all her boys. You had a very unique way about you, you weren't disrespectful, you were sincere in your thoughts and feelings, although at times, you were very private with them, which I saw nothing wrong with. You never wanted or liked "confrontation", and I understood that, but, I had a real problem with certain people disrespecting you, although all you did, was love them, unconditionally, and for that, many times, you were hurt very deeply, to the core of your soul...I miss you my BB, and I always will. Thanks to God and you, for allowing me the privilege of you being in my life, heart and soul, and me, having the honor, of being allowed in yours..."T.o.l.f.a.e." your wife, Toni Way ;-)

“ A blue butterfly to match your beautiful blue eyes, my love... also, because you are free from all the negative things you had to go through, down here on Earth. As you can see, everything is such a mess, and will be a super long time, before things get better. our lives will never be "normal", ever again....we have lost so many people worldwide to this terrible virus..I'm thankful to God, that you aren't here, and weren't here, to have to experience any of this..it is soooo bad...Is getting closer to the one year date, since you went up to heaven to be with our Almighty Father, where you are healthy, happy and safe from anything or anybody. Can't believe that its been that long... most of the time, feels like less than 5 minutes. I miss everything about you, and I always will, my gentle man with a huge,generous heart and selfless soul. You always made me feel so beautiful, cherished and deeply loved.... you gave the absolute BEST cuddles, snuggles, and hugs....I miss that, as well as a lot of other things about you... I feel very "lost" down here, without you, but, I know that with God"s help and guidance, that I will "find my way", like I'm supposed to. It will just "take some time" to get there...My life will NEVER be the same, but, I'm still trying, every day, to move forward, in a positive direction' like I feel you would want me to... You used to always say, " where there's a will, there's a way, and my name is Larry Lee Way". Because of you, I can say the same thing, except MY name is Toni Way!!! ;-)
You obviously can see and know what is going on, with "the other thing", but since it is nothing of any importance, with time, it will not even be "a distant memory", for me, I had the very best, in you, blessed by God, and although some other people may be of a different "mindset", God, you and I, all know the truth...Rest easy, my handsome and loving husband "t.o.l.f.a.e." your wife, Toni Way

“ Together our love forever and ever....I miss you my amazing, handsome, and humble best friend and husband...as much as you loved to sing (you had an awesome voice!), dance, tell all your jokes and stories....I'm sure that you are entertaining everyone up there...as usual... thank you for loving me the way you did, and allowing me to experience what "real and true love" was and is, all about. You know what's in my heart and soul, even if I can not put it all, into words...I'm so grateful and thankful that you are happy, healthy, at peace and under the protection of our Almighty Father, himself. I look forward to the time that he will reunite us, once again...I love you BB, always have and always will...Death may separate us, "physically" but, our bond will never be broken..."t.o.l.f.a.e." “ Hello, my love... Yesterday was very stressful, as its been 11 months since you went to heaven, to be with God. That sounds like a long time, but, in reality, most days, it feels like only a few minutes ago..I'm told, with time, it does get easier and better, and I'm sure that this is true...I have no false expectations. I know you are "physically gone", and not ever coming back to me, that particular way, but, you will always live on, in my heart, soul and memories...You were, and always will be such a blessing, and at times, a miracle in my life, that I will always be grateful and thankful for.. I try to keep myself busy, and my mind occupied, but it always drifts back to you...always. One foot in front of the other, as I've been told, and this is what I do, every day, to try to continue to move forward, in a positive direction, but, at times, my Larry, I feel so "lost" without you...I'm told, that this is a completely "normal way to feel", especially after such a devastating and tragic loss, and the closer you are to someone, especially a spouse and years that you loved that person and were together, makes it harder, sometimes...There are so many things that I want to share with you, and I guess, in ways, I still can...but, its not the same, ya know??? I know they say "never say never", but, I honestly can't see myself ever being in any type of a relationship with anyone else, but you...frankly, I don't want anybody else..remember, when we used to tease each other, and I told you that I felt that you were "the cream of the crop"??? you used to laugh, but, I honestly feel that when you've been "blessed with the best", from the Good Lard, himself, no one else would or could do, right??? Thank you for all the "signs", that you continually send me, from time to time. They really help me to keep "going on"... I love you, BB, and I always will..."t.o.l.f.a.e." Your loving wife, Toni Way

“ Hey "Big Boy"...remember when we used to call you that, all the time, cuz you loved Big Boy, esp their coffee, and you were a "big boy"??? but, a NICE big boy. I love looking at your picture, with your beautiful smile, remembering all the happy times, we shared. I remember when I took this picture. it was actually at Big Boy in Traverse City, one of your favorite places to be. You had such a contagious laugh, hilarious sense of humor, you made everybody around you, laugh, and get in a better frame of mind, just by your presence. You had some really severe struggles, in your life, at times, but, you always seemed to find the "good", no matter what. It was amazing to me, to watch you, at times, going through a lot of things, esp healthwise, but, no matter what, you always seemed to be concerned about others, instead of yourself, and at times to your detriment. But, you would always say, "God's always got my back", I know you believed it, and it was always true. You not only were a handsome man, you had a beautiful and truthful soul, which I dont think a lot of people knew about you. You were, are, and always will be the one and only true love of my life. You were "the one" God made for me, and as you used to tell me all the time, I was "the one" that God made for you... Its very hard being down here, without you, but, I have to say that Im grateful, that you didnt live to be subject to the corona virus situation. I know, in my heart and soul, that due to your immune system being down,you wouldnt have survived it, and for that, among other things, I am so thankful to God.... I love you, my sweet and gentle man... "t.o.l.f.a.e."  your loving wife, Toni Way

“ Hello, my sweet man. Thought I'd give you a boat, today cuz I know how much you loved being on and in the water. You were always an " outdoor guy", loving Mother Nature and all God created, down here on Earth. I imagine this is nothing compared to the magnificent place you are now...I miss you so much, my precious husband. God really broke the mold, when he made you..for sure!!! Your mom is right..you always were the most loving and kindest one. Rest easy, my love...I look forward to the day we can be reunited again..."t.o.l.f.a.e.". Your wife, Toni

“ Hello Baby Boy...was on Facebook to see what was going on, and someone had posted about the song, "Dancing in the Sky", that I sing to you, every day... I know that heaven is truly better off with you, there, and you are free from all the pain and struggles, you had to bear, here on earth, for so long, but, I can honestly say that I feel my heart will be broken for a long time, due to the loss of you...my beloved husband and best friend. I miss everything about you, my love, but, I think the things I miss the most, is your contagious laugh, your beautiful blue eyes that sparkled, when you laughed and were so happy, your smile, your sense of humor, all the stories you told from being on the road, trucking for so many years and miles... I miss your unconditional love and support, no matter what was going on....i have loved you, all my life, you were, and always will be, that "special one that God created for me". I was always so proud of you, all that you accomplished in your 68 + 3 & 1/2 months on this earth, but still remained humble to the core. I was completely honored to have you in my life, to be a part of yours, and all the memories that we shared, that I can have forever, and no one can ever take away... I was also honored that you asked me, twice to be your wife, at the age of 14, as well as the last time, at 49, and August 27, 2005, we were blessed by God, to finally have our wish and dream come true, to be joined in marriage, as husband and wife. My sweet Larry, can you even fathom, what a treasure you were, and always will be, to me??? most people, in their lifetime, are never that lucky...but, I was...Thank you for all the "signs" that you send me, from time to time. They help me to "get through" each day, and to deal with life..."T.o.l.f.a.e.", my first and only "love of my life"...Your wife, Toni M.Way

“ Hello my love. I lit a candle for you in your favorite color. Wednesday was a very hard day for me, as it was my first birthday w/o you, here on earth. Remember when I threw a special birthday (65) party for you at LaSenorita? You were so happy that day. Never could I have imagined, that 2 years and 8 months later, you would go home to be with God. I'm happy that your struggles are over, but I still do and will always love you very deeply and miss you, each and every day. You were and always will be one of the best blessings that God ever granted me, in my life. Thank you for all the beautiful memories that you gave and shared with me, and left me with, when you went "home". I'm very lost w/o you, but these precious memories help me to get through each day. "T.o.l.f.a.e.", my beautiful man, husband and best friend. Remember when we made this code p word up when I was 14, and you proposed for the first time? You always said, "we are two peas in the same pod, baby" , and "I'm in it, for the long haul"....my pod's pretty empty w/o you, baby boy...

You've always been a man among men, very loving, thoughtful and kind, and even though you aren't here physically, you are still watching out fore and Joey....what a wonderful husband, best friend and love of my life I had till you were taken away too soon
You didn't break your promise toe, about not leaving me, babe.vyou had no choice, although you continued to fight the good fight, and fought hard. You totally blew everyone away with your power and strength and faith. Goes to show, we are blessed from our Father, when we are "true Christians' and do what's expected of us from the Almighty Father. You were/are a grade A+++ example of that. T.o.l.f.a.e

“ Forgot to tell u, my love. Adopting a new "fur baby" boy, Joey Worthington Way. This is his new bed, ready to bring him home. Dr has done paperwork for him to be service/companion anal for me so he and I can be together, everywhere. He would have loved you, and you ,him. I will tell him all about you, so he will know about what a "special daddy" he would have had, if you could still be here, physically. We will be fine, sweet man. Things are already "in place" and we are "golden". I love you, my sweet and special Larry Lee Way and I always will, beyond eternity. You "stole my heart" when I first met you so many years ago...

“ Well, my love it's getting close to the 5 month mark of you being in heaven with our Almighty Father.

I look forward to joining you when The Master says I can.

I miss you each and every second and millimeter of a second, each and every day I can feel God and you guiding me, but, I still miss the physical you. Not mad at God and I'm not mad at you,my love. Mad as hell at the people that made you suffer needlessly and put you in that position repeatedly until God decided-Larry,my child, has suffered enough and took you home with him to be healthy, happy again, able to be with your parents, meet your grandparents, hang out with all your buddies, the fur babies, and everybody else. Hey, could you say hi to Micki up there, for all of us, ok? I know in my heart and to the core of my soul, that you are fine and I don't have to worry, try to keep you safe and protect you anymore. You are in The Master's hands, and there is no better place for you to be. I only hope and pray that you didn't feel or know what was happening to you, when you passed in such an unnecessary and tragic way. Marv hugged me and gave me a sympathy card, and with big teardrops in his eyes told me, "Im so sorry you lost Larry, Toni. He was my brother, but he was your husband, the love of your life, and you were the same for him. You were perfect for each other, I know how much you loved him, how hard you tried to keep him safe.I will always miss him, bit you will always be "family" to me. Remember when he "gave me away to you, "when we got married? He was so proud of himself! Hahaha "Stud Muffin". I will love you forever and through eternity, my sweet Larry Lee Way. You always were/are one of God's greatest blessings for and to me so thankful and grateful for the gift of you from God to me, and being able to hold you in my heart and soul for 57+ yearsm you were 'ome of a kind", God definitely broke the mold, when he created you. Your mom was right

You were and always will be, the most loving of all the "boys". So, enjoy yourself, my sweet man, always remember our special and unconditional bond, and have fun up there for me, too and please tell all MY family members and Richard, that O day "hey". Thanks Baby Boy, I knew I can count on you, just like always.... Your loving wife, Toni Marleen (Le'Mere) Way

“ What a graduation! I remember when the Way boys got together they were a hilarious bunch but now he's home with Jesus. No more pain, SOB or difficulty breathing. No more sorrow. Only JOY and happiness forever more. I know he'll be missed here but if anyone wants to see him again and be where he's at, you'll have to accept Jesus as your Savior. He is the only way to get to to heaven. No priest. Budda, Mohammed or Alla will work. Only Jesus the way, the truth, the life. Glory to God. Thank you Jesus that he made things right before leaving this earth.
