

Lee C. Hanson

February 7, 1944 - March 27, 2020

Lee C. Hanson, 76, of Traverse City, Michigan passed away on Friday, March 27, 2020 at his home. Lee was born on February 7, 1944 in Pontiac, Michigan. He was raised in Franklin, Michigan by his loving parents Carl and Wilma (Wood) Hanson. He married the love of his life, Catherine Alexander on November 7, 1965. Lee had been employed as a mechanic with General Motors and later with Skilled Manufacturing until his retirement. He loved old cars and was very proud to be part of the team that restored the Oleson's Model A truck for NMC.

Lee is survived by his loving wife of 54 years, Catherine, two daughters; Tricia (Rob Wilhite) Hanson and Terry (Chris) Ashmore, a brother, Byron (Christine) Hanson as well as four grandchildren and a great-grandson.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

In accordance with Lee's wishes cremation and private family services have taken place.

Those planning an expression of sympathy may wish to consider a memorial donation to the American Cancer Society.

Please feel free to share your thoughts and memories with Lee's family at his tribute page at www.reynolds-jonkhoff.com.

The family is being cared for by the Reynolds-Jonkhoff Funeral Home and Cremation Services.

“ Our family knew Lee many years ago in Franklin, Michigan. His family was well known and much appreciated in Franklin; community and church leaders as well as successful business owners. I am sorry to learn of his passing, and send condolences to his family. Wishing you well at this difficult time. Sincerely, Mary Fellows Frixen

“ I met Lee while attending the Automotive program at NMC in the early 80's. I eventually went on to have an Automotive Repair shop. Lee occasionally stopped by. Always enjoyed the visits. Unfortunately. We lost contact after around 1997. Sorry to see his passing. Condolences to the family.
