“ It was a delight to come in to register for TGIW and see Lisa's smiling face, and discuss whatever handiwork creation she was working on at the time. She was always so friendly and cheerful and made you feel so welcome. She will be missed. My heart goes out to Paul, Emma, and family.

“ Lisa (who I've only ever called Mrs. Beauchamp) always made Emma's friends feel welcome. Her home is warm and comfortable, with a radio always tuned to the public radio station, lots of plants set on windowsills, and plenty of blankets for when we would curl up in the basement to watch movies. We fumbled around in her kitchen, learning to cook. She sent us all off to college with homemade jam.

I think it's fair to say that many of my favorite things about Emma — her creativity and generosity — are from the example set by her mom. I'm both grateful for those memories and heartbroken for the Beauchamp family. I hope you all feel surrounded by love and support.

“ I always loved seeing Lisa. She had a bright smile and a happy nature. I used to see her in the church office. She was always busy, cheerful and ready to help. I'll miss seeing her around.

Blessings to Paul and family. My heart is with you at this time.

“ Lisa's was one of the first smiling faces we came in contact with at FCC and one we looked forward to seeing regularly. She radiated light and love to everyone she met and was always willing to lend a hand. Lisa was loved by many and will be missed by all.

“ I just loved Lisa! She radiated love and joy, in spite of health challenges. She volunteered with so many things at FCC, taking money for church dinners, helping to put on the church bazaar, filling Easter eggs, and I know so much more! A dear, dear girl who loved The Lord and her family
