“ I once asked my mom what the worst thing she ever did was. She thought about it for a bit and said, when I was much younger I took a tomato from the farmers yard. I felt terrible and went back later to return it. I thought if that's the worst thing she's ever done...this woman is truly an angel on earth. I love you mom and will miss you so much.

“ What I remember about your mother was that she was so prim and proper. Always very meticulous in everything she did. She and grandma Carlisle were cut from the same cloth. I haven't seen her in many years, but rest assured that she was in my heart and my prayers. Your family has a wonderful guardian angel watching over you all. God Bless. Lucia. R.I.P.
