“ Dear Kim, Colleen, Carol, your family, and all who knew and will always love Lou, or "Mrs. Wright," as I knew her growing up - I am older now by more than a decade than she was when I first met her at, I think, just age five. That I cannot remember exactly how old I was speaks to how long Lou, and Mr. Wright, "Don," were among the most important people in my family's life - and always will be. You, Kim, and Rob (rest in peace), were their older-than-we-were and so-cool kids. We loved hearing about your lives, I remember so many times my dad speaking fondly of you to my family, and expressing how much your mom and dad cared about and were proud of you. I know that Lou and Don did the same about us. In the inevitable turbulent spots, sometimes extended ones, in our lives, a never-wavering given was how good, and decent, and kind your parents were, and how much they meant to my parents, and to my brothers, Rick, and Ed, and me. For a time in my early 20s, your mother provided the most loving private counsel and kindness to me, when I most needed it. I loved her, and I always will. I am sorry for your loss, which is of the deepest kind. I am incredibly grateful that although time and careers and geographical distance have separated us, that for decades The Wrights, and Lou in particular, were the fabric of The Cravens' lives. When this pandemic is more fully behind us, my life partner, Chris Topinka, and I will visit Michigan again, and it would be wonderful to pay a visit to you to honor your mother and father. Until then, and always, on behalf of The Craven Family, I offer our deepest condolences. We will keep you all in our hearts.

“ Lou will be forever missed. She was the best partner I ever had and worked with me my secretary and office manager in the practice of law for nineteen years. She was a dedicated professional and wonderful friend.

“ As a senior in high school ('84-'85), I was a co-op at the law office where Lou worked. I also had the privilege of working with her during my college years, too! I loved learning from Lou. As a result of her mentorship, I have continued to work in a law office, and a long period of time with the Courts - all spanning 37 years. I have wonderful memories of Lou. My condolences to her family.
