“ I have known Marilyn Keech for pretty much all my life. Such a sweet lady she was. I know I will see her again in heaven with my Lord when I pass into the better life as she has.

“ Marilyn, has been a long time friend to my wife Evelyn and myself for many years. She ALWAYS stopped and chatted with us when we would see each other at Family Fare on Eighth Street in Traverse City, or just on the street. And more times than not if she saw us and we didn't see her in a parking lot, she would make it a point to swing around stop and ask if I was blind or if I just didn't want to talk. I would always say I lost my glasses and I couldn't hear her behind me... Then she'd say huh, with a blank stare on her face....Once she caught on to what I said she, would just laugh...Our condolences go out to ALL of Marilyn's family.
