Comments

“ My deepest sympathies to the Hamacher family!! There are no words that can erase the grief and pain when losing someone so loved. May the promise at Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:4 bring a small measure of comfort and may God grant peace in the days ahead.

“ Dear Sharon, Chris and I were very sorry to just hear the news about Bob. We remember very well all the chats in the alley behind our house on S. Union. That is a wonderful picture of Bob that you have on the page. Looks just like him, only thing missing is his red pick-up! It's been 22 years now since we moved to Jacksonville, FL, and a lot has changed. But we still have our memories. You and Bob were wonderful neighbors, and we've never forgotten that. I can still see him with his snowblower today. Take care,
