“ I will miss most of all the phone calls Russ and I had though all our years as brothers. Russ always could take the conversation we shared to the next level with truth and facts in all areas of life. In good and bad times he made things and give peace in the words from God and the lord. And now he has left me with a bench mark for the rest of my life. And now we will talk in the SPIRIT OF GOD. I feel your love and strength my little BROTHER.
