“ Her smile and warm greeting every time I would see her at Oleson’s was the best part of grocery shopping! I will miss her.

“ Oh Sandra! Olesons isn’t the same without her. She’s gonna be missed by her co workers and her customers that would wait in her line even if it was all the way back to aisle 10. She was a great lady and I enjoyed working with her over the last 15 years at the store. She’s in a better place and we will always keep her close in our hearts.

“ Sandy, who was more than just my babysitter, but also like my mom. She raised me at her own home from the ages of 3-12. So I spent a lot of time with her girls and children of all ages.

She was the kindest person I know and she will be so very much missed. People like her don't come around very often, one who is a pillar of her community. She introduced me to the world and it's wonders. Let me horse around with the boys and taught me responsibility.

I'll miss her and my deepest condolences to her girls and family.

“ I wouldn't leave Sandy's lane till she told me I was her favorite customer... however I had a sneaking suspicion that there were many. I will miss this wonderful human and want her family to know how much she meant to so many. Rest well my friend.

“ I worked with Sandy for 5 years at Olesons and always chose to bag groceries on her line. I absolutely loved chatting with Sandy and sharing stories! Each time I went in the store after leaving I'd always make it a point to go through her lane. I will miss you so much, Sandy!

“ Sandy was the warmest most welcoming spirit at church when we started FOV. She gave her heart and soul to her church family. She was a great woman who would help us out in a pinch to have daycare, lived her monkey bread and her Bible school snacks.

“ I was one of those customers that would wait in her line just to say hello and see her warm smile. Sandy will be missed!

Joan Attwood - October 15 at 09:04 AM

“ If I saw Sandy, I went through her line at Oelsons. I go to Oelsons because folks like Sandy work there. My son and daughter worked there and she'd ask about them. She was a wonderful light that God gave me and I'll never forget her.
