“ I remember meeting you when i rode the bata bus, and it was always a joy to talk you and hang out with you, and i really loved that even though i haven't lived in tc since 2014 we still talked to each other through social media. I miss your smile and your beautiful personality and it hurts me beyond belief! That when we come up to tc. I won't see you . But God called you home and one day we'll see each other again. My deepest condolences to tt's family and many friends. R.I.H beautiful angel.

“ My one of best friends who I will never get to see who I always loved your smile when I would go to Taco Bell at the mall how you always put me in a great moode even when I was feeling down. And I remember you used to date my brother now that you are with my brother up there please say hi and I can't wait to see you again one day. I wish it was me that was gone and not you. God always calls for those beautiful Angels as you definitely sure was. I know I can't see you but I can remember the memories and as I look up tonight I pray you save me a spot when its my turn. Keeping your family and friends in my prayers. God bless Until we meet again. R.I.P. TT.
