“ A spark of joy has left us. During prayer time at FBC, when Vikki's hand was raised, I knew we were in for a story. Most of her stories, prayer concerns, contained a note of humor, but not all. But all were important to her, to us as a congregation and to our God.

“ I first met Vikki @ Northwestern Michigan College. My favorite memory is of our sleepovers @ First Baptist Church with the children. We had so much fun! I loved chatting with Vikki especially when sharing our stories of our families. And, of course, the Firm Believers class @ the church. She kept us motivated, laughing and aerobics for me was never as enjoyable as when Vikki was the teacher. Til we meet again my friend, aerobics with the Angels

So sorry to hear of Vicki's passing. I've known Vicki for 30+ years and found her to be a very happy person who could light up a room with her presence. I took her exercise classes in the basement of her church. She was an inspiration to anyone who wanted to get fit. RIP Vicki and may your family find peace and comfort in this sad time.
