“ To Whitney's Family;
I am so very sorry for your loss. I never got to meet Whitney, and hoped and trusted that some day I would. I don't know if she ever knew what great work is being done in her honor in Traverse City, because her father John made it possible. I hoped for the day that I would be able to tell Whitney the story of harmreductionmi.org firsthand. I'm so very sorry that this day won't come, but I believe she is the reason that John has helped us help so many people here.

You are in our prayers, and your legacy will continue to make an important difference.
