“ Dearest Willard I've missed running into you at Glen's in Charlevoix and letting me help you get your schedule for physical therapy workable for you. I enjoyed when you would call me here and ask just for me for help. My sister Jackie Rozema enjoyed you as well. Jesus loves you Willard.and I do as well. You are truly in a far better place of rest.

“ You've gone with the angels..I know your in a better place without the restrictions of your health. I'll miss your messages you would leave me saying they were from "Daddykins". Thank you for the loving memories of my childhood-take your daughter to work days, father/daughter dances, trips to the hunting lodge in the summer, how to decorate a perfect christmas tree and of course how to make the perfect malt, just to name a few.

Love always, Lynn

“ Dear Splittstoesser family, warm greetings and deep condolences from the Woodfin family. May our Lord give you His peace. Here is a section of Scripture from 1st Corinthians 15 that describes God's perfect plan for us: We pray God provides you a small piece of comfort as you dream of our certain future, singing and glorifying God together with your father and grandfather, forever.

In love and in Christ,

"Now I say this, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Behold, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory. "O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY? O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law; but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord." (1 Cor 15:50-58)
