

William C. Parr

November 8, 1920 - August 2, 2015

Traverse City - William C. Parr, 94, of Traverse City passed away August 2, 2015 at the Grand Traverse Pavilions.

William was born on November 8, 1920 in Flint to the late Lyman and Liela (McCoy) Parr.

On September 8, 1938 William married Gayle S. Stone in Ohio.

William served his country honorably as a member of the United States Navy.

William and Gayle moved to Traverse City from Florida in 1983 after retiring as a real estate appraiser. In his spare time he enjoyed reading about and discussing politics, playing golf and completing crossword puzzles.

William is survived by his son Gary Parr of Grand Blanc, son Phillip Parr of Florida, and son Matthew Parr of Traverse City, six grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

William was preceded in death by his wife Gayle, his son Craig (Judy), sister Norma Moss and brothers Jack Parr and Chuck Parr.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 3, 2015 at the Reynolds Jonkhoff Funeral Home at 3:00 pm.

William will be interred at the Garden of Remembrance at First Congregational Church.

Memorial contributions in memory of William may be directed to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Please visit www.reynolds-jonkhoff.com to sign William's online guestbook.

The family is being served by Reynolds Jonkhoff Funeral Home and Cremation Services.

Comments

“ Bill and Gayle were our neighbors in Fenton for about 4 years but we stayed in touch as they moved around. Loved them both. Bill was such a kind and gentle man. His son Craig sent me an letter telling me that he had talked to his dad about his time in the service and that he had been surprised at how much Bill had done. He will be missed. George and my thoughts and prayers are with his boys and their families. George and Judy Brown.

Judy Brown - September 21, 2015 at 06:37 AM